

Certificate in Innovative Writing

Program Highlights

- > Earn a Certificate in Innovative Writing and complete your MA in English in 12 to 24 months
- > Participate in small, intensive writing workshops and write a creative thesis while taking advanced seminars in literature and critical theory
- > Pursue a writing-related career or develop skills appropriate to MFA and PhD programs

Contact Us

Additional program information available <http://www.buffalo.edu/cas/english/graduate/certificate-in-innovative-writing.html> or by contacting:

Dr. Dimitri Anastopoulos
Director of Creative Writing
danastas@buffalo.edu

Apply Now

GRE waiver for all undergraduates with at least a 3.6 GPA!

Are you interested in advancing your career as a writer? Do you want to be part of a community of writers reflecting on the implications of innovative creative writing in the context of 21st-century global citizenship?

The Certificate in Innovative Writing at UB can help you realize your aims.

The Certificate in Innovative Writing presents a unique form of graduate study in creative writing, closely intertwining the practice of writing with literary and aesthetic inquiries. It is open to MA students in English and to UB students enrolled full-time in other MA or PhD programs.

- > The MA in English at UB is among the most flexible and interdisciplinary programs in the nation.
- > One third of MA graduates continue on to PhD programs, another third obtain jobs in secondary education or writing, and the final third pursue careers in a range of fields, including law, business management, and marketing.
- > New York State resident graduate tuition in the 2015-2016 academic year only $5,435 for full-time study.