Welcome to UB

Do you like the idea of living in a communal environment that celebrates UB’s diverse student population? Do you want to make friends with students from around the world while living in a safe and supportive community on campus? Are you interested in exploring issues of intercultural and international significance with other residents? If so, consider joining the Global 360 Living Learning Community! This new initiative is dedicated to the “global experience” at UB and we are looking for a diverse group of international and American students to live together and learn from one another.

What does Global 360 do?
Global 360 seeks to create a fun and engaging residential community by:

- Uniting students with a shared interest in global experiences and issues
- Fostering meaningful relationships between students from diverse backgrounds
- Strengthening connections to UB and Buffalo, NY
- Having FUN!

How does Global 360 do it?
Global 360 provides residents with opportunities to explore new ideas and cultures through activities including:

- Coffee/Tea study breaks and group meals
- Trips to local attractions and events
- Attendance at campus events
- Cross-cultural activities, such as films, games, and discussions
- Visits from staff and faculty members

Where is Global 360 located and who will you live with?
- Global 360 is housed on UB’s North Campus in Dewey Hall, part of Governors Complex
- Governors has its own cafeteria, diner, exercise room, lounges for social events and studying, and is a short walk to most academic buildings
- Governors has a reputation for fostering a positive community among its first-year residents and multiple Living Learning Communities
- Each resident of Global 360 is paired with a roommate from a different part of the world
- Governors has a diverse population of U.S. students and International students

If you have questions or would like to complete an application, contact Chris Bragdon (cbragdon@buffalo.edu), Assistant Director for Student Programs. Applications for 2017-2018 must be submitted by May 1.

Welcome to UB

Do you like the idea of living in a communal environment that celebrates UB’s diverse student population? Do you want to make friends with students from around the world while living in a safe and supportive community on campus? Are you interested in exploring issues of intercultural and international significance with other residents? If so, consider joining the Global 360 Living Learning Community! This new initiative is dedicated to the “global experience” at UB and we are looking for a diverse group of international and American students to live together and learn from one another.

What does Global 360 do?
Global 360 seeks to create a fun and engaging residential community by:

- Uniting students with a shared interest in global experiences and issues
- Fostering meaningful relationships between students from diverse backgrounds
- Strengthening connections to UB and Buffalo, NY
- Having FUN!

How does Global 360 do it?
Global 360 provides residents with opportunities to explore new ideas and cultures through activities including:

- Coffee/Tea study breaks and group meals
- Trips to local attractions and events
- Attendance at campus events
- Cross-cultural activities, such as films, games, and discussions
- Visits from staff and faculty members

Where is Global 360 located and who will you live with?
- Global 360 is housed on UB’s North Campus in Dewey Hall, part of Governors Complex
- Governors has its own cafeteria, diner, exercise room, lounges for social events and studying, and is a short walk to most academic buildings
- Governors has a reputation for fostering a positive community among its first-year residents and multiple Living Learning Communities
- Each resident of Global 360 is paired with a roommate from a different part of the world
- Governors has a diverse population of U.S. students and International students

If you have questions or would like to complete an application, contact Chris Bragdon (cbragdon@buffalo.edu), Assistant Director for Student Programs. Applications for 2017-2018 must be submitted by May 1.