

WOMEN IN STEM COOPERATIVE

Student Call for submissions:

STEM for Everyone: Stories and Examples from Students

An event to compliment the 2017 University at Buffalo - Women in STEM Summit

Submissions are invited from undergraduate and graduate students to provide 5-minute presentations about STEM. Presentations are being sought about a STEM topic, or an existing research project, provided in language that is easily understandable by the general public. Presentations that address inclusivity of women and other underrepresented groups will be given priority during submission reviews. Creativity is encouraged!

This is a great opportunity for students to practice presentation skills, network with others from the UB community and regional corporate sponsors, and to begin to build their professional footprint.

Presentations will be held:

Date: April 25, 2017

Time: noon to 1:00 pm

Location: 210 Student Union

This event will compliment the University at Buffalo 2017 Women in STEM Summit. For more information, please visit: <http://www.eng.buffalo.edu/womeninstem/summit.html>

Faculty and staff are encouraged to sponsor students from science, technology, engineering, mathematics, or related fields. Students are responsible to prepare and share a 5 minute presentation.

Submission Criteria:

- Undergraduate or graduate students at the University at Buffalo
- Presentations should represent a STEM topic that would be of interest to a general audience

Proposals should include:

- Name of Presenter(s)
- Contact Information
- UB Department
- Gender
- Title of Presentation
- Abstract (100 words or less)
- Name of faculty sponsor (if applicable)
