

UB Global Fair

Thursday, September 22, 2011

Center for the Arts Atrium

- 11:00-4:00 Exhibits of international programs, services, activities and opportunities at UB
- 11:30-1:30 Specialty foods prepared by international student clubs and Three Pillars Catering

STAGE PROGRAM: Student Performances; Presentations by Globally Engaged Faculty

- 11:00-11:15 Performance: Indian Student Association (Dance)
- 11:20-11:28 Professor Ezra Zubrow, Anthropology; Chair, Faculty Senate
Equality before the Thaw
- 11:30-11:38 Professor Pavani Ram, Public Health and Health Professions
Child survival in the 21st century: Low-tech Solutions in a High-Tech Era
- 11:40-11:55 Performance: Latin American Student Association (Music and Dance)
- 12:00-12:15 Performance: Lion Dance by Members of the Buffalo Kung Fu Temple
- 12:20-12:28 Professor Gene Morse, Pharmacy and Pharmaceutical Sciences
International Pharmacotherapy Education and Research Initiatives
- 12:30-12:38 Professor Natalie Simpson, Management
*From Kitty Hawk to Cheddarfield and Beyond:
A Ten-Minute History of Global Access at the UB School of Management*
- 12:40-12:55 Performance: Korean Folk Arts Club (Drums)
- 1:00-1:08 Professor Munroe Eagles, Political Science and Canadian Studies
The International is Local - Canadian Studies at UB
- 1:10-1:18 Professor Isabel Marcus, Law
Reports from the Field: Addressing Domestic Violence in Eastern Europe and the Former Soviet Union from the Perspective of an America Law Professor
- 1:20-1:40 Performance: Indian Classical Dance: "Invocation for Success"
Performed by the dancers of Natya, directed by Professor Teja Rao
- 1:42-1:50 Professor Jeff Good, Linguistics
Preserving Endangered Languages in West Africa
- 1:52-2:00 Professor Richard V. Lee, Medicine and Biomedical Sciences
Medicine in the International Setting
- 2:00 Professor Erik Seeman, History; Director, the Humanities Institute
The Humanities Institute and "Fluid Culture"
- 4:00-6:00 Fluid Culture Keynote: Professor Saskia Sassen, Columbia University
Talking back to your Intelligent Cities, Screening Room