Global CINEMAspectives

A Friday Night International Film Series

All films are free and open to the public

Friday, September 24
@ 5:00 PM, 107 Talbert

The Lemon Tree (2008)

A Palestinian widow fights to keep her lemon grove from being annexed when Israeli security fences threaten to tear apart a family irrevocably. Winner of Best Screenplay of 2008 by the Asia Pacific Screen Awards 2008.

Friday, October 15
@ 5:00 PM, 107 Talbert

Red Doors (2005)

Red Doors is the first feature film by writer-director Gaige Lee. The film follows the story of the Wongs, a tight-knit and dysfunctional Chinese-American family, as they struggle to communicate and ultimately to understand each other. Red Doors seeks to examine and challenge the preconceptions of the modern American family and the sexism with which those traditional conceptions are maintained today.

Friday, November 5
@ 5:00 PM, 107 Talbert

L’auberge espagnole (2002)

Six international students take up residence in an apartment in Bordeaux. The film follows their adventures as they learn the international language of friendship. Winner of the Audience Award at the 2003 Bratislava International Film Festival.

Sponsored by Undergraduate Academies & International Student and Scholar Services

More information at: http://academy.buffalo.edu
(716) 645-8177