

University at Buffalo

The State University of New York

A Leading Public University

One of the best public universities in the northeastern United States, the University at Buffalo (UB) is an outstanding place to receive an education. Founded in 1846, UB is the largest university center in the 64-campus State University of New York (SUNY) system and offers the most comprehensive selection of undergraduate and graduate programs of any SUNY campus. UB is a member of the prestigious Association of American Universities and stands in the front rank among the nation's research-intensive public universities. Nevertheless, UB remains one of the most affordable public universities in the United States.

Faculty and Degree Programs

UB has an award-winning faculty of nearly 2,000, of whom 95 percent hold the doctorate or equivalent terminal degree. UB offers some 300 degree programs at the bachelor's, master's and doctoral levels.

The Campus

The campus is one of the most modern in the United States and features state-of-the-art classroom, laboratory, computer, and library facilities at its suburban location in the town of Amherst.

Student Life

UB offers athletic programs, extensive recreation and entertainment facilities, 450 student organizations including more than 25 international student groups, general interest lectures, concerts, films, and a rich variety of cultural activities. The UB Bulls are a Division I-A team in the National Collegiate Athletic Association (NCAA) and is a member of the Mid-American Conference (MAC).

The Community

Buffalo, the second largest city in New York State, enjoys a temperate four-season climate and offers residents of the region the convenience of an urban center and the friendliness and livability of a small town. It is a welcoming and safe city for international students, who find it an enjoyable and comfortable place to live, at a very affordable price.

Location

Buffalo is only an hour's flight from New York City, Washington, Boston, Philadelphia and Chicago, and is situated just across the Niagara River from Canada. World-famous Niagara Falls is only 20 minutes by car from UB, and Toronto, one of the continent's largest cities and a major cultural center, is just a 90-minute drive to the north.
