Winter 2015
Instructions for International Undergraduate Students Seeking Winter-Only Non-Degree Study on an F-1 Student Visa

1. Complete and submit (by mail, fax or scanned attachment) the “Undergraduate International Student Application Form for Non-Degree Winter Study” to the International Admissions Office.

2. Applications received without the $50 Application Fee cannot be processed.

3. International students enrolled in winter-only non-degree study must be registered full-time (defined as six credits in the student’s first Standard Winter Session).

4. Submit a copy or scanned attachment of your secondary school and/or university transcripts, school-leaving examinations and/or certificates.

5. English language proficiency must be sufficient so that you can successfully complete university classes. In the application form, answer the questions about your English proficiency and submit the required documentation. When you arrive at UB, the University may test your English language proficiency if you are having language problems and you may be required to register for an English class if your language proficiency is determined to be inadequate to successfully function in a university academic setting. You must submit or document one of the following:

   a. TOEFL score report (no minimum score for winter-only study).
   b. IELTS score report (no minimum score for winter-only study).
   c. SAT I Critical Reading section score report.
   d. GCE O level or A level Results Slip with a passing grade in English.
   e. IB passing grade in English or Literature.
   f. AP passing grade in English or Literature.
   g. Any other recognized test that demonstrates English language proficiency (for example, STEP, CEFR, CET, PTE, TOEIC, GRE Verbal score, MELAB, Cambridge ESOL CPE and CAE, iTEP, etc.).
   h. Citizenship of a country where English is the official/ legal language.
   i. Citizenship of a country where English is the medium of instruction (for example, some Caribbean countries, some African countries, India, Singapore, some European countries, and others); to be determined on a case-by-case basis by International Admissions as part of the application review process.
   j. Successful completion of an English language program.
   k. Successful completion of at least one term of academic study in a country where the official medium of instruction is English (regardless of citizenship or native language of the applicant).

   Applicants who cannot demonstrate English language proficiency as noted above cannot be admitted and will not be issued an I-20 or DS-2019.

6. If you require a Certificate of Visa Eligibility for a Student Visa (Form I-20 or DS-2019), complete the International Applicant Financial Form and submit it with the required financial documentation.

7. Complete the “Winter Class Registration Planner” in the application. You will be required to register for at least 3 credits (1 class) in the winter session. But please list two or three classes (with a rank order) in case your first choice is not available. Visit http://registrar.buffalo.edu/schedules/index.php for the winter class schedule.

8. It will be your responsibility to contact Brian Waldrop, Senior Academic Advisor in the UB College of Arts and Sciences Student Advisement and Services, at: bwaldrop@buffalo.edu to confirm your enrollment and register for your classes.

9. Tuition eBills are e-mailed after winter class registration has occurred.
   • If you register before early December, your bill will be due in early January.
   • If you register later, your bill will be due in late January (or later).
   • Details about billing can be found at: http://studentaccounts.buffalo.edu/billing/winter.php

11. On-Campus Employment is not permitted.

12. UB does not provide airport pick up. Taxis, shuttles and public transportation are available. Information will be sent with the I-20 packet.

International Applicant Financial Form – Winter 2015

All international applicants must document their ability to meet all educational and living expenses for the entire period of their intended study before this university can issue a Certificate of Visa Eligibility (Form I-20 or DS-2019). Read the following instructions carefully before completing and submitting this form.

Instructions

Part I: Answer questions 1 – 7 completely.

Part II: Indicate the sources of your funding, the amounts available for each funding source, indicate the total amount available, and have the sponsors verify their support by signing this form. Include required supporting documentation (see below).

Each applicant must document financial support equal to or greater than the amounts indicated below, depending on the number of registered credit hours. (These figures are estimated costs and are subject to increase without notice.)

Estimated Winter 2015 Budget

Winter-Only Non-Degree Undergraduate-Level International Students

(Tuition is charged at the rate applicable to each course as determined by the course level.)

Total cost for a typical 3-week winter program (with a minimum 3 credits) will cost approximately $4,172

The following costs are not included and are not printed on the I-20 / DS-2019 and students/families should be prepared to budget: local and international transportation, orientation fee, student activities, books and supplies, incidentals and personal allowances. We recommend budgeting approximately $500 for these extra out-of-pocket expenses.
