Aaron Krolikowski, University at Buffalo

As founder of a development project in Nyamuswa, Tanzania, Krolikowski worked with local farmers to improve conditions and promote environmental sustainability. He has conducted environmental research for a campus-based regional policy think tank — the first undergraduate to do so, he notes. As project co-coordinator with the Environmental Justice Action Group of Western New York, he has worked to reduce hazards faced by underserved communities. He interned with the environmental protection bureau of the New York State Attorney General's office. As a member of Buffalo Chips, a campus male cappella group, he arranged and co-wrote music that was included in a Best of College A Cappella 2009 compilation CD. He is a
