

August 19-21, 2018

Beaver Hollow Conference Center
<http://www.beaverhollow.com/>

UB ACADEMY FOR HIGHER EDUCATION

Leadership

An immersive, two-day retreat

YOU'LL LEARN TO:

- Identify current challenges in higher education leadership
- Understand the leadership role of the department chair
- Recognize leadership styles, strengths and development opportunities
- Envision the future through strategic and design thinking
- Lead change and avoid derailment
- Understand the dean's perspective
- Build a high-functioning department
- Manage performance
- Harness the keys to effective teamwork and collaboration
- Communicate effectively
- Manage conflict
- Promote and achieve diversity

As a leader in higher education, you know how demanding your role can be. At the UB Academy for Higher Education Leadership, you'll build the skills you need to meet your daily responsibilities and enhance your leadership potential in a focused, two-day workshop with key peers.

WHO SHOULD ATTEND:

- Academic leaders
- Current department chairs
- Aspiring department chairs
- Associate deans
- Program directors

Registration opening soon!

SPEAKERS

Robert Granfield, PhD, is vice provost for faculty affairs, professor of sociology and an affiliated scientist in the UB Research Institute on Addictions. As vice provost for faculty affairs, he is the senior executive officer responsible to the provost for all matters pertaining to UB's faculty. He is a graduate of Leadership Buffalo and has participated in several higher education leadership seminars.

Paul Tesluk, PhD, is professor and dean of the UB School of Management. He actively works as an executive coach, teaches graduate and executive courses on leadership development, and consults with a variety of organizations on leadership development practices and systems.

Tilman Baumstark, PhD, is the associate vice provost for faculty affairs and a research associate professor in the UB Jacobs School of Medicine and Biomedical Sciences, Department of Microbiology and Immunology. He has led professional development initiatives for faculty at various stages throughout their careers.

"The retreat equipped me with a variety of tools that will help me as a chair in the future, provided insight into how to effectively communicate with deans and helped me develop a network of leaders."

—FEEDBACK FROM A PROGRAM PARTICIPANT

COST

Price: $1,200. Includes participation in all sessions, program materials, lodging for two nights, all meals and access to all facilities at Beaver Hollow Conference Center.

The UB Academy for Higher Education Leadership is presented by the University at Buffalo's Office of the Provost, the Office of the Vice Provost for Faculty Affairs, and the School of Management's Center for Leadership and Organizational Effectiveness.

Beaver Hollow Conference Center is situated on 300 acres of natural woodland in beautiful Wyoming County and offers a relaxing and scenic atmosphere for the retreat. You'll enjoy gourmet farm-to-table cuisine, luxurious overnight accommodations and access to recreation, including a swimming pool, Jacuzzi, fitness center, row boats, fishing, nature walks, butterfly garden, koi pond, putting green, basketball court, tennis court, shuffle board, bocce ball, billiard tables and a sand volleyball court.

