

Research on Aging: People, Policy, and Practice

Join this series of conversations on aging-related issues focusing on a strengths approach to later life. Once a month, on Thursday afternoons, we will meet to hear about new and ongoing research, promising strategies, and opportunities for collaboration. This series welcomes researchers, service providers, community advocates and others.

“Healthspan and Frailty in the Elderly: Does Vitamin D Make a Difference?”

Bruce R. Troen, MD

Professor & Chief, Division of Geriatrics and Palliative Medicine,
UB School of Medicine and Biomedical Sciences

Thursday, September 24, 2015 • 3:00 - 4:30 pm

214 Parker Hall, University at Buffalo, South Campus

Free parking in Parker Lot, access from Winspear Ave

RSVP requested to Laura Mangan at CEPPrsvp@buffalo.edu or call 645-5376

... next ...

Thursday, October, 2015 • 3:00-4:30 pm

“Medicare Part D: Using Research to Inform Practice and Policy”

Louanne Bakk, PhD, Director, Institute on Innovative Aging Policy & Practice, UB Social Work, with Tony Szczygiel, Esq, Legal Services for the Elderly, SUNY Buffalo Law professor emeritus

Thursday, November 12, 2015 • 3:30-5:00 pm (note later time)

“Age and Longer Marriages”

Debra Street, PhD, Professor & Chair, UB Sociology

The Research on Aging Series is organized by the UB Civic Engagement and Public Policy Research Initiative, the Institute for Person-Centered Care, and the UB School of Social Work's Institute on Innovative Aging Policy and Practice. Cosponsorship by the UB Gender Institute is gratefully acknowledged.