

Visionaries and Troublemakers

Women's, Gender, and Sexuality Studies at 50

FALL 2022 WORKSHOP

Join us for a workshop that has the dual aim of critically reflecting on fifty years of women's studies at UB and examining how the teaching and research conducted by faculty and students has been part of broader struggles to promote the rights of women and sexual minorities.

October 28, 509 O'Brian, North Campus
PANELS

- Women's Studies at 50
- Big Questions: Then and Now
- Practicing Feminist Pedagogies
- Radical Story Telling
- In Remembrance

October 29, 403 Hayes Hall, South Campus
PANELS

- Activism and Academics
- Differences and Intersections
- Taking Stock, Moving Forward
- Wrap-up conversation
- Walking Tour Buffalo-Niagara LGBTQ History Project, Central Library

DISTINGUISHED SPEAKERS

- Lisa Albrecht (University of Minnesota)
- Ellen DuBois (University of California, LA)
- Bonita Hampton (SUNY Oswego)
- June Lapidus (Roosevelt University)
- Elizabeth Laposky Kennedy (University of Arizona)
- Ellen Spiro (University of Texas, Austin)
- Bonnie Zimmerman (San Diego State University)

Free and open to the public, the workshop is sponsored in part by: The Baldy Center for Law and Social Policy; UB Office of Vice Provost of Inclusive Excellence; UB Humanities Institute; CAS Office of Inclusive Excellence; CAS Departments of Global Gender and Sexuality Studies, Comparative Literature, English, History, and, Political Science.

