Mentor's Signature

I understand that by signing this application, I am acknowledging that the above-mentioned students are presenting at a conference under my guidance.

I am aware that my department chair holds final approval of directing all fund transfers and that the department chair may either approve or deny funds (signature required below) being sent to a faculty account, or can supply auxiliary account information for funds to be deposited into. I also agree to assist with obtaining the chair's signature.

I have read the students' application for accuracy of content-specific information as related to our field of study. If IRB approval is necessary for the work on which the presentation is based, I attest that any student working with human or animal subjects has obtained IRB approval and has completed the CITI training requirements.
