

Research on Aging: People, Policy, and Practice

A new series of conversations on aging-related issues focusing on a strengths approach to later life. Three times this fall, on Thursday afternoons, we will meet to hear about new and ongoing research, promising strategies, and opportunities for collaboration. This series is designed for researchers, service providers, community advocates and others.

"The Town Square for Aging: An Innovative Community-University Partnership"

Diane Bessel, PhD, MSSA

Department of Social Work and Sociology, Daemen College;
Non-Profit Consultant, formerly at United Way and the Homeless Alliance of WNY.

Thursday, October 2, 2014 • 3:00 - 4:30 pm

509 O'Brian Hall, Law School Conference Rm, University at Buffalo, North Campus

RSVP requested to Laura Mangan at
CEPPPrsvp@buffalo.edu or call 645-5376

And forthcoming

Thursday, October 23, 2014: 3:00-4:30 pm

107 Capen Hall, Honors College Seminar Room, UB North

"Person-Centered Care: Hearing the Voices of People Living with Dementia"

Davina Porock, PhD, Professor, Associate Dean for Research and Scholarship, UB
Nursing, and Director, Institute for Person-Centered Care

Thursday, November 20, 2014: 3:00-4:30 pm

107 Capen Hall, Honors College Seminar Room, UB North

Bruce Troen, MD, Professor of Medicine & Chief of Geriatrics and Palliative Care, UB Medicine and Biomedical Sciences.

UBipcc.com

UB2020.buffalo.edu/civic

<http://tinyurl.com/ml9o5av>

The Research on Aging Series is organized by the UB Civic Engagement and Public Policy Research Initiative, the Institute for Person-Centered Care, and the UB School of Social Work's Institute on Innovative Aging Policy and Practice. Cosponsorship by the UB Gender Institute is gratefully acknowledged.