

Atlantic Studies: An Interdisciplinary Workshop

Sponsored by Cultures and Texts Academic and Strategic Strength and the Provost's Office of Strategic Initiatives

Wednesday November 4
9 Norton Hall

All papers will be precirculated and available through UB's Online Course Reserve system under HIS 000. Panels will involve discussion and debate rather than formal presentations.

9:30-10:00am – coffee and light refreshments

10:00am-12:00pm – Pan-American Discourses

Dalia Muller (HIS), "El Último Cañonazo: Cuba and the Unfinished Revolution for Spanish American Independence"

Justin Read (RLL), "Argentina and the Total Theater: Imaging Buenos Aires and Modernization in (and around) the Journal Sur"

Comment: Carl Nightingale (AMS)

12:00-1:00pm – lunch

1:00-3:00pm – Body Images

Hershini Bhana Young (ENG), "Genealogical Transatlantic Echoes: Joice Heth and Miss Angola Landmine"

Hal Langfur (HIS), "Dismembering Colonialism: Portugal's Cannibal Problem in the Era of Brazilian Independence"

Comment: Carine Mardorossian (ENG)

To learn more, contact Erik Seeman (HIS), seeman@buffalo.edu