

Anthropology Graduate Student Independent Study/Reading Courses Instructions

Independent Study/Reading Courses should be arranged with the instructor(s) before registering. Prepare a written statement of the topic to be covered, the methodology, and the expected results, including a bibliography and the form of evaluation of work. Once an agreement has been reached, you should fill out the Department Independent Study form, attach additional typed sheets as necessary, have the instructor sign it and submit it to the Director of Graduate Studies (D.G.S.) by the end of the semester you are registered for an Independent Study/Readings Course (APY 601, 602 or 607). No ex post facto requests will be approved by the D.G.S. This form will later turn out to be an essential part of your Application to Candidacy for the M.A. or Ph.D. degree.
