

University at Buffalo
State University of New York
DEPARTMENT OF ANTHROPOLOGY
Office of Undergraduate Studies
380 MFAC – Ellicott Complex
Buffalo, NY 14261-0026

Undergraduate Professional Activities and Achievement in Anthropology ($150.00)

This award is given to a senior Anthropology major who, in addition to maintaining a high level of academic achievement, has engaged in professional activities as an undergraduate to an extent that warrants special recognition. Such activities might include: participation in, and presentation at, anthropology conferences; substantial independent research of professional quality publication; and, professional-level service to the department, such as the organization of special anthropology events, outstanding anthropology club leadership, and other professional activities.

Date: _____ Person Number: _____ Dept. GPA: _____

Name: _____ Overall GPA: _____

Please include/attach a personal statement (no more than 600 words) Please detail your qualifications and mention all activities in which you have engaged and which are related to the award (for example, internships, volunteer work, summer work, etc.- make sure to explain how these activities are related to the award):

Name of at least one faculty member (no more than two faculty members) who is familiar with your work and who has agreed to write a one-page letter in support of your self-nomination:

Faculty member #1: _____

Faculty member #2 (optional): _____

Remember to attach your curriculum vitae

Submit by March 31, 2020 to carolzit@buffalo.edu

For department use only:

Received:

Curriculum Vitae received:

Letter from faculty member: _____

Date: _____