

Interview with an object

What would this object say if it could talk?

Come up with three questions to ask your object. Think about its life and the different experiences it may have had. What do you want to know more about?

1. _____

2. _____

3. _____

Draw your object and include details that help you answer the questions you asked above.

