

Brexit:

A Brown-Bag Panel Discussion

When

April 10th, 2017

11am - 1pm

Where

509 O'Brian Hall
The Baldy Center
University at Buffalo

The Panel:

Michelle Benson (Political Science)

Brexit: Implications for Conflict Intervention and Human Rights Policies

Winston Chang (Economics)

Brexit and Its Economic Consequences

Patrick McDevitt (History)

British and Sub-British Patriotism in the Age of Brexit

Deborah Reed-Danahay (Anthropology)

Living with Uncertainty post-Brexit: French Citizens in London

Randy Schiff (English)

Brexit, Ethnonationalism, and the Re-Fragmentation of Europe

David Schmid (English)

I Foresaw Brexit in 1973, When I Was 9 Years Old

The Moderator: Sasha Pack (History)

Bring your lunch. Drinks provided.

For more information, contact Deborah Reed-Danahay (der5@buffalo.edu)

Organized by the Jean Monnet Chair. Co-Sponsors: CEUS and the Baldy Center

