

SECOND INTERNATIONAL CONFERENCE BUDDHISM AND LAW

September 26, 27 & 28, 2019

509 O'Brian Hall, North Campus, University at Buffalo

Join us for the Second International Conference on Buddhism and Law. The conference, hosted by the journal, Buddhism, Law & Society, focuses on the many legal features of Buddhism, and how law and the state relate to Buddhist actors, institutions and texts.

PANELISTS

Rebecca Redwood French, University at Buffalo School of Law

Petra Kieffer-Pülz, Academy of Sciences and Literature, Mainz

Ben Schonthal, University of Otago

Berthe Jansen, Leipzig University

Christian Lammerts, Rutgers University

Eugénie Mérieau, University of Göttingen

Nima Dorji, Jigme Singye Wangchuck School of Law

Tomas Larsson, University of Cambridge

Thomas Borchert, University of Vermont

Richard Whitecross, Edinburgh Napier University

Vesna A. Wallace, University of California, Santa Barbara

Cuilan Liu, University of Pittsburgh

Mark Nathan, University at Buffalo

Fumi Yao, Waseda Institute for Advanced Study

Jens Wilhelm Borgland, Uppsala University

Shayne Clarke, McMaster University

Christopher Emms, McMaster University

Annie Heckman, University of Toronto

Gerjan Altenburg, McMaster University

SPONSORS

The Baldy Center for Law & Social Policy

Buddhism, Law & Society Journal

Asian Studies Program

Department of Anthropology

Department of Art

Department of Comparative Literature

Department of History

Department of Political Science

Department of Sociology

 University at Buffalo
The Baldy Center
for Law & Social Policy
The State University of New York

CONTACT: editor@buddhismandlaw.org
The conference is free and open to the public.

Photograph courtesy of David Engel, poster by Debra Kolodczak.
VISIT: www.buffalo.edu/baldycenter