RESPONSIBLE CONDUCT OF RESEARCH WORKSHOP SERIES

The IRB and Ethical Use of Human Subjects in Research

RICHARD J. KARALUS, PHD

Director of Research
Compliance
Office of Research
Compliance
University at Buffalo

The application of ethics in human subjects research can be a difficult process. This workshop will present the principles of the Nuremberg Code and Belmont Report. The application of these principles for the development of a human subjects research project will be discussed.

The workshop will also include the presentation of several case reports as examples of abuse and the proper application of these principles.

This workshop series is free and open to all students, fellows, faculty, and staff at UB and the Buffalo Translational Consortium.
