

GENDER MATTERS

UB GENDER INSTITUTE
SPRING 2023 EVENTS CALENDAR

RESEARCH GRANTS AND AWARDS

APPLICATION DATES TO REMEMBER

February 13: Isabel Marcus International Research Fellowship

Established in 2012 to honor the distinguished contributions to research and education on women and gender of Professor Isabel S. Marcus, co-founder and co-director of the Gender Institute (1997-2003) and recipient of UB's 2012 Award for Outstanding Contributions to International Education, the Gender Institute's Isabel S. Marcus International Research Fellowship is awarded to outstanding UB graduate students to support and encourage research about women outside of the United States.

February 27: Undergraduate Scholarship Award

The Gender Institute and the Experiential Learning Network award two scholarships to UB undergraduate students. One $500 award for undergraduates conducting research related to women, gender, and/or sexuality and another $500 award for a community based project with a gender and/or sexuality focus.

March 6: Faculty Research Grant Award

The Institute for Research and Education on Women and Gender offers grants to UB faculty to support research that exemplifies high quality, innovative scholarship related to women and gender. The Institute is particularly interested in supporting projects that are collaborative and/or interdisciplinary.

April 3: Excellence in Mentoring Award

Based on nomination letters from faculty, staff, and students, the award promotes and recognizes outstanding achievements by faculty and staff in cultivating the professional potential of their colleagues and students.

April 21: PhD Dissertation Fellowship

The Gender Institute Dissertation Fellowship supports students engaged in dissertation research related to women, gender, and/or sexuality.
