International applicants must affirm that they are responsible for paying all tuition, fees and living expenses for the entire period of the intended study program. Applicants must document the full cost of only the first year of study before the university can issue a Certificate of Visa Eligibility (Form I-20 or DS-2019).

Instructions:

Part I
Answer questions 1–7 completely.

Part II
Indicate the sources of your funding, the amounts available, and the totals for each year, and have the sponsors verify these amounts by signing this form. Include required documentation as indicated below.

Applicants must document financial support equal to or greater than the amounts indicated below (one year of study).

These figures are estimated costs and are subject to increase without notice.

1Tuition indicated above is the 2021-22 actual tuition rate for the academic year only (September–May) plus the required first winter tuition. Future tuition rates are not estimated; 2022-23 rates will be announced in summer 2022. Tuition and fees are subject to change. Tuition can increase annually. The above estimated budget is for the first year of study (Fall + Winter + Spring).

2Health insurance (included in “fees” above) covers one year (12 months); the cost of health insurance is estimated and can change.

3Minimum allowance for least expensive on-campus housing and food costs for the Fall and Spring semesters (one academic year) plus a cost of living allowance for the first Winter term; other school breaks and subsequent summer costs are not included (if the student were to live on campus in those periods). The university recommends that students plan for an additional $2,500 or more for books, supplies, and personal expenses / incidental costs.

The above figures are estimated costs and are subject to change without notice. Total costs typically increase 5% per annum.

* Dependent Support

An F-1 student wishing to have his or her spouse and/or children accompany him or her must document the following amounts for each family member per academic year of intended study. A marriage certificate (in the original language along with an official English translation) must be provided for the dependent spouse. Birth certificates (in the original language along with an official English translation) must be provided for the dependent children.

For spouse: $8,000 per academic year
For each child: $6,000 per academic year
