International applicants must affirm that they are responsible for paying all tuition, fees and living expenses for the entire period of intended study by completing the form on the next page. Applicants must document the full cost of only the first year of study before the university can issue a Certificate of Visa Eligibility (Form I-20 or DS-2019).

Instructions:

Part I

Answer questions 1–7 completely.

Part II

Indicate the sources of your funding and the amount available from each source; have your sponsors verify their sponsorship by signing the form. Submit the required documentation as indicated below to show that you and your sponsors have available liquid assets equal to or greater than at least one year's cost.

1 Tuition indicated above is the 2022-23 tuition rate for the academic year only (September–May). Tuition and fees are subject to change. Tuition can increase annually (but doesn’t always). Summer, winter and non-standard session tuition and fees are not included above.

2 Includes mandatory university comprehensive fees and dental school program fees. Health insurance is calculated for a full calendar year.

3 Minimum allowance for the least expensive on-campus housing and food costs for the Fall and Spring semesters (one academic year); optional Summer and Winter sessions and school breaks are not included (if the student were to live on campus in those periods). Also, includes an allowance for initial, basic books and supplies.

The above figures are estimated costs and are subject to change without notice. Total costs typically increase 5% per annum.

Dependent Support

An F-1 student wishing to have his or her spouse and/or children accompany him or her must document the following amounts for each family member per academic year of intended study. A marriage certificate (in the original language along with an official English translation) must be provided for the dependent spouse. Birth certificates (in the original language along with an official English translation) must be provided for the dependent children.

- For spouse: $8,000 per academic year
- For each child: $6,000 per academic year
