FALL 2024 INTERNATIONAL APPLICANT FINANCIAL FORM
International Dentist Program (IDP)

International applicants must affirm that they are responsible for paying all tuition, fees and living expenses for the entire period of the intended study program. Applicants must document the full cost of only the first year of study before the university can issue a Certificate of Visa Eligibility (Form I-20 or DS-2019).

Instructions:
Part I Answer questions 1–7 completely.
Part II Indicate the sources of your funding, the amounts available, and the totals for each year, and have the sponsors verify these amounts by signing this form. Include required documentation as indicated below.

Applicants must document financial support equal to or greater than the amounts indicated below (one year of study).
These figures are estimated costs and are subject to increase without notice.

The State University of New York sets tuition; it is subject to change without notice. Fees are estimated based on the student activity fee, comprehensive fees, the international student fee, and international student health insurance. Living Expenses are a 12-month estimate of costs associated with Buffalo's day-to-day life for a student from abroad. The above figures are estimated and are subject to change. Total costs typically increase 5% to 8% annually.

Dependent Support

An F-1 student wishing to have his or her spouse and/or children accompany him or her must document the following amounts for each family member per academic year of intended study. A marriage certificate (in the original language along with an official English translation) must be provided for the dependent spouse. Birth certificates (in the original language along with an official English translation) must be provided for the dependent children.

For spouse: $8,400 per academic year
For each child: $6,300 per academic year
