

Trina Rudra

Institute for Myelin and Glia Exploration
Research Support Specialist

Trina is a MS in Developmental Biology. She has an experience in University at Buffalo and Roswell Park Cancer Research Institute for 11 years as a research associate. She has contributed to several projects on neurodegenerative disease and Prostate Cancer.

Currently she is a research Support Specialist expertise on confocal and electron microscopy and hopes to use her skill to study the advances in Krabbe's Disease.