

Clue #1 This office can help you with joining student government, ways to participate in the UB community, join a club or Greek organization.

Clue #2 Looking for hands-on learning and opportunities to build experience for your career—browse this unit's Project Portal or earn badges for your enhanced work!

Clue #3 With a commitment to supporting ALL students, this office celebrates differences and provides a space to meet, socialize, study and more!

Clue #4 This TRiO program serves first generation students, low-income and/or students with disabilities to help them overcome academic, cultural and social barriers so they can succeed at UB.

Clue #5 This office will support your writing efforts from essays, scholarship applications, professional letters and more! Talk it out with a consultant to bring out your best written voice.

Clue #6 Ready to design the next steps of your life after UB, or maybe you're unsure about what major you are best suited for—talk with this office to get pointed in the right direction!

Clue #7 Dedicated to excellence in scholarship, this program serves low-income, first generation and traditionally underrepresented students along their path to earning a PhD.

Clue #8 This office supports the student well-being and academic success by building a healthy campus culture. Come talk to us about stress, healthy eating, harm reduction, violence prevention and financial literacy