MULTICULTURAL COMPETENCE

Strategies to support a more inclusive campus community
Presenters

Meg Syrell
(she/her/hers)
Coordinator of International Student Orientation
Orientation, Transition and Parent Programs

Jeremy Jungbluth
(he/his/him)
Learning Designer of Inclusive Pedagogy
Office of Curriculum Assessment and Teaching Transformation
Workshop Agenda

I. Learning Outcomes & Expectations
II. Our Campus Community
III. Multicultural Competence
IV. Applying to Practice
V. Closing
Learning Outcomes

By the end of today’s workshop, you will be able to:

• define key tenets of cultural humility and multicultural competence.

• discuss the direct benefits of cultural humility and multicultural competence to the members of UB's diverse campus community.

• apply inclusive strategies to develop settings that are supportive and respectful of diverse cultural differences.
Community Expectations

As a community, we agree to hold ourselves and each other to the following expectations.

1. We will not demean, devalue, or “put down” each other.
2. Challenge the idea and not the individual.
3. Speak our discomfort.
5. Learn from each other.
6. Others we wish to co-create in this space?
OUR CAMPUS COMMUNITY

Recognizing our students' diverse identities and experiences
Conversation Starter

Do you believe UB is a diverse campus community?

1. Use the QR code or go to menti.com
2. Enter this code: 64 53 66 3
3. Answer the question
Understanding Student Demographics

• Consider the challenges those with marginalized identities might experience
• Examine the significance of intersecting identities
• Describe the importance of a sense of belonging
• Name possible solutions to strengthen inclusion at UB
Identities at UB

- Ability
- Age
- Body size or type
- First-generation status
- First language
- Gender identity
- Indigenous or tribal affiliation
- National origin
- Race and ethnicity
- Religion or religious beliefs
- Sexual orientation
- Social class
- Socioeconomic status
- Student parent status
International Students

• Often experience sociocultural, linguistic, and academic adjustments in the U.S.
• Beware of our own assumptions
• Foster an inclusive and welcoming environment
• Create opportunities of engagement with U.S. peers
Gender Identity

• Awareness of continuous targeting and marginalization
• Implement LGBTQ+-affirming practices
• Respond to specific needs of LGBTQ+ community
Race/Ethnicity

• Attentiveness and sensitivity to the atmosphere we create
• Cultivate micro-moments of connection
• Establish positive emotions
Create a Community of Inclusiveness

It can feel daunting to find ways to support inclusive environments when we know that students have so many identities, so there are strategies we can use to do so

- Building our awareness of personal cultural influences
- Developing experience and knowledge of difference cultural practices
- Fostering authentic relationships and meaningful interactions
- Promoting environments and change that are representative of inclusive, just spaces
MULTICULTURAL COMPETENCE

Understanding a framework for effectively working with our campus
Multicultural Awareness

- Why multicultural awareness is important:
  - Understand information vs. misinformation
  - Challenge beliefs and assumptions
  - Identify your own privilege
  - Assess how power dynamics influence yourself, others, and the relationships within and between groups

Values, assumptions, attitudes, and beliefs that influence our worldview and how we relate to others (Pope et al., 2019)
Multicultural Knowledge

• Why multicultural knowledge is important:
  - Foundational component of valuing and centering inclusive practices
  - Informs the development of culturally competent lessons, programs, and dialogues
  - Provides key information about how to "effectively and respectfully interact with people from a wide range of cultures and backgrounds" (Pope et al., 2019, p. 41)

Information about cultural groups, practices, privilege, oppression, and social justice (Pope et al., 2019)
Multicultural Skills

• Why multicultural skills are important:
  - Enable us to apply evidence and theory to practice
  - Inform the implementation of culturally competent lessons, programs, and dialogues
  - Ensure we can incorporate cultural humility, minimize harm while recovering from errors, and continue cultural learning

Behaviors that build upon and allow us to apply multicultural awareness and knowledge in our work and lives (Pope et al., 2019)
Multicultural Action

• Why multicultural action is important:
  - Allows us to advocate for systems of change
  - Necessary to combat individual, structural, political, and physical barriers
  - Without action, we cannot work towards fully just and inclusive campus communities

Steps that operationalize multicultural awareness, knowledge, and skills into environmental improvements and change (Pope et al., 2019)
APPLYING TO PRACTICE

Identifying ways to implement culturally responsive practices
Build Multicultural Awareness

Identify your multicultural baseline.

1. Access the survey
   - With the QR code
   - Via the web: PollEv.com/jeremyj804
   - Via text: Text JEREMYJ804 to 37607

2. Answer the survey questions
Obtain Multicultural Knowledge

Learn about each other.

1. Think: Read and think about the self-awareness questions.
2. Write: Jot down your thoughts.
3. Pair: Turn to a peer and share your thoughts.
4. Share: Summarize your conversation to the group.
Apply Multicultural Skills

Lean into our multicultural awareness, knowledge and skills.

1. Read the scenario aloud.
2. Identify the assumptions, biases and beliefs.
3. Deconstruct the assumptions, biases and beliefs.
4. Identify culturally sensitive and appropriate strategies and interventions.
Identify Multicultural Action

1. Use the QR code or go to menti.com
2. Enter this code: 3507 7825
3. Answer the question
CLOSING
Reflecting together
Reflection

• Please share your thoughts and questions.
Contact Information

Meg Syrell
megansyr@buffalo.edu

Jeremy Jungbluth
jjungblu@buffalo.edu
Resources and References

• Intercultural Development Inventory. (n.d.). IDI General Information. Intercultural Development Inventory, LLC. Retrieved November 30, 2022, from https://idiinventory.com/generalinformation/

