VALUING IDENTITY:

Use of Chosen/Preferred Name on Identification Cards, in Data Systems and in Academic Records

Samantha Smith (she/her) and Joe Rizzo (he/him)
Definitions for Identity:

Gender Identity:

- a person's internal sense of being male, female, some combination of male and female, or neither male nor female

  - A person’s gender may or may not coincide with their biological assigned sex.

    - The psychological sense of oneself.

(Biological) Sex (Assigned at Birth)

- Based on physical characteristics, including the internal and external reproductive system of the individual and genetics.
Why this matters:

• According to a 2010 study, 38% of transgender students have sincerely considered leaving higher education due to discrimination, violence, or harassment (Wilson, 2016, p.39).

• “The correct name, gender, and pronouns recorded on official paperwork is important to students, transgender or otherwise; it prevents potentially outing or embarrassing situations with future employers and brings them a step closer to living a less disrupted life.” By updating these databases in order to have easy access to changes as the student evolves over time, this can prevent possible serious damage after their college career. The proper use of this information, in turn, can create affirming environments for students and their gender identity through name and pronoun use, housing, and in a classroom setting. The lack of these affirming services can create negatives consequences, such as lack of respect around pronouns, living as a gender they do not align with and disrespect academically, which lead students to feel isolated and unable to build community (Garvey, 2020).
Researchers interviewed transgender youths ages 15 to 21 and asked whether young people could use their chosen name at school, home, work and with friends. Compared with peers who could not use their chosen name in any context, young people who could use their name in all four areas experienced 71 percent fewer symptoms of severe depression, a 34 percent decrease in reported thoughts of suicide and a 65 percent decrease in suicidal attempts.
UB’s Initiative

- UB launched the Transgender Working Group which created an initiative to create an alternative name “preferred name”
- In summer 2020, updated to “Chosen/Preferred name”
- Change was made to better reflect that some people chose to be called by a certain name while others prefer it
- Updated labels in HUB and website to say preferred/chose (pref’d/chosen name due to character limits in some spaces)
  - Customization in HUB to the name type description
Goals for Initiative:

- Create a process for students to enter their own chosen/preferred name, no review is required
- Allow students to enter chosen/preferred first and middle names
- Only have students enter their chosen/preferred name in one location, feed to as many systems as possible
- Use the chosen/preferred name in as many systems as possible
- Don’t “out” students by showing legal and chosen/preferred name together
  - Not Joseph (Joe) Rizzo
Student Chosen/Preferred Name policy

- Student Chosen/Preferred Name policy was created and promulgated by the University President
- Students have the right to enter a chosen/preferred name
- University will use this name whenever possible except when there is a legal requirement
IMPLEMENTATION
Inside of HUB & External Systems
Student entry in HUB Student Center

- Students can enter their preferred name on the Personal Details page of the profile tile
- Students navigate to the names page and click on the ‘+’ to add a new name type

HUB JOB AID
Student entry in HUB Student Center

- When adding a new name students can enter a First, Middle, Last, and Suffix
- UB implemented a customization to this page to autofill the last name to match the primary name and not allow editing
- Student clicks ‘Save’

- Very similar to faculty center, preferred names are automatically shown to advisors if one is entered.
External systems

• Goal was to use chosen/preferred name in as many places as possible, anywhere there wasn’t a legal requirement to show a legal name we would use chosen/preferred name
• Created new name fields in our ID management systems for chosen/preferred name and display name
  - Display name is chosen/preferred name if one is entered, if not primary name is used
• If a system has two name fields, feed both primary and chosen/preferred name as long as it doesn’t display both names together Joseph (Joe) Rizzo
• If a system has one name field or displays names incorrectly, display name field is fed

FUTURE ENHANCEMENTS
Chosen/preferred name search updates

- Allows searching by chosen/preferred name for the first time
- Searching for both primary and chosen/preferred names will return the student's record in the search results
Diploma Name

- The university will allow students to enter a diploma name in HUB when applying for graduation or when purchasing an additional diploma. Students may choose their legal or a preferred/chosen name to appear on their diploma. If no diploma name is entered in HUB, legal full name will be used.

Preferred/Chosen Names and Pronouns Policy

- Update to include pronouns, diploma name, inclusive of students and staff.
- Included responsibility for university employees to use an individual’s chosen pronouns.
How to make our offices Gender Inclusive

• Give students/colleagues the chance to share their pronouns and preferred names in ways that respect personal boundaries
  - Introduce yourself with your pronouns
  - Have name tags/tents that include pronouns
  - Consider including specific ground rules about respecting each others’ pronouns and other gendered language
  - Include info that will be helpful for transgender colleagues such as:
    - The location of the nearest gender-inclusive restrooms and a link to the gender inclusive restroom map
    - Instructions on how to change pronouns and preferred names online
    - Links and contact info for campus resources
How do you know which pronoun to use?

- What pronouns do you use?”
- “How would you like me to refer to you?”
- “How would you like to be addressed?”
- “My name is Luoluo and my pronouns are she and her. What about you?”
What happens when a mistake occurs?

• If you make a mistake, most people appreciate a quick apology and correction at the time of the mistake. Try: “I’m sorry I used the wrong pronoun earlier. I’ll be more careful next time.”

• If someone uses the wrong pronoun for another person try a brief correction: “I think Sam uses she and her pronouns. And yes, I’m going to her office later too!”
