

Knowing, Being, Doing

building a diverse & inclusive community at UB

Agenda at A Glance

June 4, 2019

9:30am- 9:50am	Registration Opens	Knox Hall 1 st Floor
10:00 am - 11:00 am	Welcome address and panel: Theory to practice: building a diverse and inclusive community at UB	Knox 110
10:30 am	Conference resource room opens	Capen 107
11:10am - 12:00 pm	Breakout Session #1 Digital Accessibility – Why it Matters (Part 1 of 2)	Capen Hall
	Exploring Food Diversity	Capen Hall
	Diversity & Inclusion: Empirical Realities, Prescriptions for Change	Capen Hall
	Using Critical Race Theory in Your Daily Interactions with Students	Capen Hall
	What We Can Do: Bystander Intervention Training
12:00 pm - 1:15 pm	Lunch (included with registration)	Bert's Cafe
1:30pm - 2:20 pm	Breakout Session #2 How To Create Accessible MS Office & Adobe PDF's (Part 2 of 2)	Capen Hall
	Foundations of Conversation	Capen Hall
	They said WHAT? Microaggressions in Higher Education	Capen Hall
	Learning through Diversity	Capen Hall
	Multidimensional Identity Model & Active Self-Reflection: Strategies for Reframing Work	Capen Hall
2:30pm- 3:30pm	Closing Session: Inclusive Excellence at the University at Buffalo Presenter: Despina Stratigakos	Knox 110

Our Purpose Today:

1. Being (re)introduced to diversity theories and models that help guide our daily interactions with others across difference and identifying ways to infuse theory into our practice
2. Increasing awareness of how one's multiple identities impact their work at UB and recognizing the importance of multicultural competency of our campus
3. Engaging in diversity and inclusion related conversations among and between colleagues and identifying institutional policies and procedures that help create and build an inclusive campus community.