

International Romanell Workshop on Bioethics and Philosophy of Medicine
Saturday, May 11, 9:30 am – 6:00 pm. Park Hall 141

9:30-10:00 Breakfast

10:00-11:00 Phil Reed (Canisius College Philosophy Department )
“Disvaluing the Disabled: Prenatal Testing, PAS, and the Expressivist Objection”

11:00-11:15 Break

11:15-12:15 Plenary Address: Thomas Molony (Elon Law School)
“Liberty Finds No Refuge: The Doubt-Filled Future of Casey’s Undue Burden Standard” with a discussion of abortion and disability

12:15- 1:15 Lunch

1:15-2:15 David Hershenov (University at Buffalo Philosophy Department)
“If Pro-Lifers Believe that Embryos are Persons then why don’t they Demand a Massive Redistribution of Research Funds for Miscarriage Prevention?”

2:15-2:30 Break

2:30-3:30 Keynote Address: Michael Rembis (UB Disabilities Center Director) “Challenging the Impairment/Disability Divide: Disability History and the Social Model of Disability”

3:30-3:45 Break

3:45-4:45 Peter Koch (Villanova University Philosophy Department) “Welfare and Disability”

4:45-5:00 Break

5:00-6:00 Barry Smith (University at Buffalo Philosophy Department)
Topic: Disability

*Workshop papers will be available for distribution on Monday May 6. To obtain any or all papers, send an email request to David Hershenov at dh25@buffalo.edu