

Western New York Workshop on Bioethics and the Philosophy of Medicine*

Saturday, March 2, 2019

Park Hall 141, 10:00-6:00

9:30-10:00 Breakfast

10:00-11:15 The Thomas Percival Lecture

Shane Hemmer (UB Ph.D. Candidate, VA Hospital)

"Why Bother Evaluating Medical Decision-Making Capacity?"

11:30-12:45 The Antonin Scalia Lecture:

Stephen Gilles (Quinnipiac Law School).

"A Conceptual Analysis (and Critique) of Constitutional Abortion Rights"

12:45-1:45 The Danny Wegman Lunch

1:45-3:00 The Neo-Locke Lecture:

David Hershenov (University at Buffalo)

"Harming the Mindless: Modifying McMahan's Time-Relative Interests Account"

3:15-4:30 The ICORUSMEDNETTECHLOGOSPCXXINFO Lecture

Dave Limbaugh (Romanell Center Fellow; Intelligence Community Postdoc ORISE)

"Medical Cognitive Process Ontology"

4:45-6:00 The Gray's Anatomy Lecture

Barry Smith (University at Buffalo)

Topic: Response to Kingma on Fetuses as Parts of their Mothers

Title TBA

7:00 Dinner

Workshop papers will be available for distribution on Monday, February 25. To obtain any of the papers, send an email request to David Hershenov at dh25@buffalo.edu